The skills gained from studying and working in business and finance will be beneficial to Michael's future legal career.

Why did you choose Davies?

The professional growth and development opportunities. Davies has such an amazing, well-established platform and they constantly encourage their students and associates to develop and grow at a healthy pace. It really was a no-brainer for me!

If you were not a lawyer, what career would you have chosen?

Probably a doctor. I have always had a passion for helping people, whether advocating for others or aiding them when they are in need. Like law, the medical field is complex, fast-paced and constantly evolving, which would excite me in my day-to-day life.

If you could have your own talk show, who would you invite as your first guest?

Michael Jordan, because he has excelled not just as an athlete, but also as a successful entrepreneur. His drive, determination, competitive spirit and hard work are unparalleled, ultimately enabling him to transcend sports and the apparel industry. Plus, I bet he has some pretty great stories to tell!
