

November 24, 2017

Davies Welcomes Bobby Sood

We are pleased to announce that Bobby Sood has joined Davies as a partner in our Tax Litigation practice.

Based in our Toronto office, Bobby brings a wealth of specialized knowledge and experience to the firm that stem from his 19 years in the Tax Services Division at the Department of Justice. Having litigated on a wide array of tax matters before all levels of court, he combines exceptional advocacy skills with a thorough understanding of government strategies and practices used in tax challenges. His unique skill set will make Bobby a vital asset to clients in all aspects of their tax controversies.

Bobby is a valuable addition to Davies' team of 11 industry-leading tax dispute lawyers.