Davies Advises on Litigation of the Year – Cartel Defence at 2022 GCR Awards

At Global Competition Review's 12th annual GCR Awards, we were honoured with the “Litigation of the Year – Cartel Defence” award for successfully representing our clients SK hynix Inc. and SK hynix America Inc. against multiple class actions alleging a price-fixing conspiracy in the dynamic random access memory market.

In a result that is exceedingly rare in competition class actions, our litigation team defeated certification in both the Québec Superior Court and the Federal Court of Canada.

The Davies team advising on this case included Sandra A. Forbes, Chantelle Cseh, Nick Rodrigo, Faiz Lalani and Trevor N. May.

Held annually, the GCR Awards celebrate the best in competition enforcement, merger and cartel defence from around the world. This year's ceremony took place on April 5 in Washington, D.C.
