A “brilliant antitrust lawyer,” Elisa is known to be “top-notch,” “sharp and hard-working,” and “willing to get down to details.”

Client – Chambers Canada

Elisa has a broad regulatory practice with a specialization in competition and foreign investment law. With vast knowledge of Canada’s regulatory framework, she provides strategic advice on numerous federal statutes to domestic and international clients interfacing with the Canadian government.

Elisa’s broad-based expertise has earned her the trust of leading technology, communications and media companies; retailers; and consumer packaged goods manufacturers.

Clients turn to Elisa to advise on the full range of antitrust, consumer protection and privacy matters, from multijurisdictional merger controls and cartel investigations to reviewable conduct, misleading advertising and ecommerce. She also counsels clients on foreign ownership and control restrictions.

Elisa regularly appears before the Competition Bureau and has acted as external counsel to the Commissioner of Competition and the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission.
