Davies Earns “Elite” Status in Global Competition Review 2021

For the 13th consecutive year, Global Competition Review has recognized Davies as an “Elite” Canadian firm – the highest category awarded in the jurisdiction – in its annual guide of the world’s top competition practices.

As trusted advisers, our competition lawyers develop unique strategies to resolve our clients’ most complex challenges. Representing clients in high-profile mergers and cutting-edge competition litigation cases, the team recently acted for Pennsylvania-based electrical products distributor WESCO International in its €3.7-billion acquisition of rival Anixter International; Google on its proposed purchase of Fitbit; payments provider Total System Services in its €21.9-billion merger with Global; and Norwegian seafood producer Lerøy Seafood Group against a price-fixing class action lawsuit.

Compiled independently, the GCR 100 provides a qualitative analysis of the law firms doing the most important competition and antitrust work around the world.
