

January 22, 2024

Michael Kandev Appointed President of the International Fiscal Association, Canadian Branch

Michael Kandev has been appointed president of the Canadian branch of the International Fiscal Association (IFA).

The IFA's Canadian branch is comprised of over 650 members, including taxpayers, advisers, government officials, members of the judiciary and university professors. It is the only non-governmental and non-sectoral international organization that deals with fiscal matters.

Read more about Michael.