

June 13, 2016

Meeting Climate Change Targets: Ramifications and Opportunities – Canadian Bar Association National Magazine

An article in the Canadian Bar Association's National magazine quotes Davies partner Sarah Powell on the challenges Canada will have meeting the targets set out in the Paris climate change agreement. "The impact [on meeting the targets] is going to be uneven as you go across provinces and territories and that is part of the tension that the federal government is dealing with now," says Sarah.