Marie-Emmanuelle works closely with clients, primarily in Canada and the U.S., on all aspects of their domestic and international tax planning. She provides clear and knowledgeable advice and a business-oriented approach to their tax matters.

She advises clients on tax matters across a broad range of critical business activities, including corporate reorganizations, mergers and acquisitions, real estate transactions, financings and restructurings. Marie-Emmanuelle's clients – public and private companies and their shareholders, as well as pension and investment funds – can rely on her ability to see the big picture and facilitate transactions involving complex tax issues.

Marie-Emmanuelle has significant expertise in advising high-net-worth clients on their estate tax planning and trust matters.

Marie-Emmanuelle is a member of our Management Committee. She also coordinates the Tax practice in our Montréal office.
