Seann strategizes with clients' business goals in mind, helping to mitigate risk and find optimal solutions to their employment challenges.

Known for his in-depth employment knowledge and business-minded focus, Seann advises clients on the full spectrum of employment challenges, from restrictive covenants and employment standards to workplace policies, successor rights and executive compensation. A trusted adviser to clients across the public and private sectors, he offers strategic counsel on employment issues arising from all types of commercial transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity deals, restructurings and outsourcings.

Based in Toronto, Seann works closely with the Employment, Labour and Executive Compensation team and collaborates across practices to deliver tailored solutions to complex employment matters. He brings high-level expertise to the management of employment law matters which intersect with the growing prevalence of ESG investor criteria, including through advice on corporate governance, compensation practices, employee engagement, diversity and human rights.

Before joining Davies, Seann practised at a national law firm and a leading labour and employment boutique.
